

THE GAZETTE.

THURSDAY, MARCH 17.

San Francisco Alta: Just look at the trade dollar! It has jumped round remarking "In God we trust" and its faith is rewarded by redemption.

The Cook county bidders give bail and are set at liberty. The New York bidders are sent to Sing Sing, and have to pay back their bonds. New York is doing better than Chicago.

The capital punishment law has been effected in Maine, and imprisonment for life substituted for death penalties in all cases of murder in the first degree. Such convicts, however, are to be kept in close confinement, away from all associations and no pardoning power is left to the governor and council, unless the convict is proved innocent.

From the Madison Democrat: "A Milwaukee paper says that Assemblyman McElroy has a bill before the legislature to create a ward in Milwaukee without a saloon in it. If Mr. McElroy can do that he may be written down as the wisest man of his age." Yes, but he can't do it. The life of Milwaukee is its beer shops. Take away the beer and nothing remains—nothing worth speaking of.

The Wisconsin legislature did a wise thing in voting down the bill to abolish the prison contract labor system. It doesn't pay to fool with that question. They did so in New York, much to the disadvantage of the state and the welfare of the convicts. The following from a New York paper shows the condition of things in that state:

It is not ten years since the governor of New York held up the fact that the state prisons were managed to pay their expenses as a matter for public congratulation in a message to the legislature. And the people and the press generally responded with congratulations. In remembrance of that, how do the taxpayers like the looks of the following one million appropriation now? "This million of dollars has got to come out of the people's pockets in the state tax this year. More than half of it will come out of the pockets of the tax payers in this city and Brooklyn. The unimpaired feeling which is going on with the state prisons is expensive."

It is very likely that the question of abolishing the contract system will be submitted to the people in this state, and that case it should be voted down with a tremendous majority.

As many as eight or ten years ago the Gazette suggested a more humane way of killing criminals than by hanging them, and gave the results of some experiments in France and Germany. The subject is being revived, and Dr. Burg Wilder, of Ithaca, New York, writes to the New York Tribune, as follows:

As I have urged in the Tribune and elsewhere since 1871, and as was proposed independently by the late Henry James in chloroform we have a means of destruction which is simple and unobtrusive, painless and gentle, humane, certain and therefore just, silent and mysterious and consequently impressive, scientific in its associations yet capable of administration by any one; last but not in my mind most essential, death by chloroform is gentle and can be administered by the criminal himself. It is the only method of execution which has not been the subject of the exhibition of maudlin sentiment and glib rhetoric; the news papers could not present the dreadful details which shock the refined but lead like the smell of blood with the tiger, to arouse in the most civilized the very instinct of violence which judicial homicide is intended to repress.

The most barbarous system of making way with persons guilty of capital offenses is that of hanging. It is even worse than the old guillotine, and should be abolished.

CHARITABLE AND PENAL APPROPRIATIONS.

The legislature has made the following appropriations for the support of the charitable, penal and reformatory institutions of the state for the next two years:

To the Wisconsin State hospital for the insane, for current expenses, including painting and masonry repairs, to January 1, 1889, $115,000.

To the Northern hospital for the insane for current expenses including painting and masonry repairs to January 1, 1889, $181,000.

To the Wisconsin School for the Deaf for current expenses, including painting and necessary repairs, to March 1, 1889, $80,000.

To the Wisconsin school for the blind, for current expenses, including painting and necessary repairs to March 1, 1889, $45,000.

To the Wisconsin industrial school for boys, for current expenses, including painting and necessary repairs, to Jan. 1, 1889, $75,000.

To the Wisconsin state prison, for current expenses, including necessary repairs and painting, to March 1, 1889, $30,000.

To the state school for dependent and neglected children for current expenses and additional buildings, $65,000.

This aggregates $911,000 for all the institutions for two years, which is an exceptionally good showing for the board, having the state institutions in charge. It is a very liberal showing. Illinois has about eleven million dollars for its institutions. Of course the state is larger, but then it is more extravagant.

SEYMOUR AMONG THE CHLORISTS.

The press of Wisconsin will never forget "Charley" Seymour, who for many years edited the La Crosse Republican. He was one of the most striking characters in the state, and withal was one of the best men that ever entered Wisconsin journalism. After working in his editorial harness for a long time, Mr. Seymour became tired of such drudgery, and was appointed postmaster at La Crosse, and then Hayes sent him to Canton, Ohio, as consul, where he still remains, much to the LADIES ON THEIR MUSCLE.A FEMINE BENEFIT SOCIETY ENJOYS A SCRIMMAGE.

During which Stricks and Buts Fly Around Live—All Because a Horrid Man Had Been Selected as Secretary—A Scene Equal to a Legislative Dead-Lock in New Jersey.

New York, March 17.—About forty members of the Ladies' German Schenckbund benefit society, of Newark, engaged in a scrimmage Monday night that was little short of a riot. The members are divided into two different factions. One of them is led by Mrs. Meta Hiltson, the president, and the other by Mrs. Annie Smith. The point of attack was as to allowing men to become members of the society. Mrs. Hiltson, believing that none of the ladies were fitted for corresponding secretary, had her faction elect her husband to the position. He performed the duties for a year, and when, at the expiration of his term, the usual constitutional resolution was offered, and some one stepped forward to give him a gold-headed cane in acknowledgment of his services, Mrs. Smith became excited and actually denounced him. She said he was unworthy the society, and money was a waste. The meeting adjourned in confusion, and the next day Mrs. Smith had him arrested for the alleged embezzlement. Justice Koder, who examined the books at Hiltson's house, honorably acquiesced.

Monday was the time for the holding of the next regular meeting after these developments. Before the appointed hour Mrs. Smith gathered her forces and went through an election of officers. When the Hiltson party entered the hall they found the officers' chairs occupied. A warm struggle ensued for the possession of the gavel, and then the two factions engaged in a hand-to-hand hair-pulling match. Stricks, lamenations, and yells, Mrs. Smith provided herself with a cat-o-nine-tails, and laid it around in the most conceivable fashion, while the gavel was used with good effect by some one else. A number of men attending a meeting in another room, attempted to quell the disturbance, but were powerless to do it, and the police had to be summoned. Tuesday warrants were issued for some of the combatants on the complaint of those whom they vanquished.

Getting the Better of the Strike.

YOUNGSTOWN, Ohio, March 17.—Freight trains slowly but steadily being resumed on the New York, Pennsylvania & Ohio railroad by the officials, who are putting on new men to fill the places of the strikers. Three freight trains arrived from Cleveland during Tuesday night and started on the return trip, each having a full complement of loaded cars. During Wednesday morning a train of thirty loaded cars was taken out on the Sharon branch to Shavango by Trainmaster Damschen. Several men brought in from other points to work in the Pennsylvania yards were sent by the strikers and induced to leave.

Insisted on Their Fees in Advance.

COLUMBUS, Ills., March 17.—In the congressional contest Wednesday a number of Democratic witnesses refused to testify until their fees were advanced. The fees of two were thus advanced. One of those, William Wren, of Yates City, swore that he was paid $5 by his employer, Joseph Littlejohn, a Democrat, for leaving his work on the farm and vetting and working at the polls for Worthington. On cross-examination witnesses held that his payment was for time lost on the farm. He also testified that a Republican had been paid $4 for working for Post.

Nihilistic Influence for Peace.

LONDON, March 17.—The Standard's Berlin correspondent telegraphs that four additional arrests of persons carrying explosives have been made in St. Petersburg. The plot is purely nihilistic and in no way due to the grievances of land owners and masters, as has been alleged. The case is now said to be more than ever averse to engaging in war with any foreign power.

St. Petersburg, March 17.—Arrests of persons implicated or suspected of complicity in the plot against the life of the emperor continue and include forty-eight identified Nihilists.

Death of a Valuable Horse.

LEXINGTON, Ky., March 17.—King Ban, the famous stallion imported from England some years ago by Maj. B. G. Thomas, died Wednesday afternoon of spinal meningitis after an illness of twenty-four hours. King Ban was 12 years old, and the most promising sire in this country at the time of his death. He was purchased for $25,000 when 2 years old. Some of his get now on the turf include Dan Fox, King Fox, Gold Ban, High Kick and Pumper. King Ban was valued at $40,000.

Been a Long Time Killing Report.

NEW YORK, March 17.—Although the Bankers' and Merchants' Telegraph company was sold over a year and a half ago to Edward S. Stokes, on behalf of the United States company, the report has never been dropped. The company has never filed the report of the sale within ten days, stating the amount received by him and the sum remaining unpaid. It is not fully stated the latter item he must state his reasons for the report.

A Guard on Beecher's Tomb.

BROOKLYN, N. Y., March 17.—At an informal meeting of the Kings county Republican county committee Wednesday night a lengthy set of resolutions expressing regret at the death of Rev. Henry Ward Beecher, and sympathy for the bereaved family were adopted. By order of the authorities of the county, a company of officers was placed on guard at Henry Ward Beecher's tomb. The watch will be continued night and day until further notice.

Now, Mrs. Bishop, Please Spare Us.

BOSTON, Mass., March 17.—Mrs. Washington Irving Bishop, accompanied by her brother, John Muck, arrived in Boston Wednesday. She promises to press a statement of her position at the unfortunate affair with her husband. Mrs. Bishop consulted a lawyer Wednesday, and it is said will have another divorce case on her hands shortly. Her brother is very indignant, and her father is coming home from the west to see about matters.

THE LEGISLATURE.A Constitutional Amendment Relating to the Chief Justice of the Supreme Court.*Regulating Elections in the City of Milwaukee.*Important Business Considered in the Two Houses.

MADISON, Wis., March 17.—In the senate this morning the assembly bills were considered in making the sale of imports milk to creameries or cheese factories punishable by a fine of from $25 to $100 for each offense; exempting the property of the Milwaukee industrial exposition from taxation.

Bills were passed making the minimum salary of district attorney in counties of 8,100 inhabitants $1000, and punishing a man for abandoning wife and children.

Among bills passed by the assembly was Keogh's election bill for cities of fifty thousand inhabitants. It provides severe punishment for any collecting of votes, and the congregating of people within 100 feet of the polling places. It also provides that no more than 400 voters shall reside in any one precinct, and each polling place shall have several tickets and voting rooms, voters to pass through them in single file. The bill prohibiting persons from practicing veterinary science in Wisconsin who are not graduates of a chartered veterinary college, or who have not practiced five years. The vote killing the senate joint resolution proposing an amendment to the constitution providing that the oldest member of the supreme court in point of service shall be ex-officio Chief Justice, was reconsidered and the resolution was ordered to a third reading. This afternoon E. P. Bacon, of Milwaukee delivered an address in the assembly chamber urging the passage of a bill similar to the interstate commerce bill.

Michigan Legislation. LANSING, Mich., March 17.—The house spent Wednesday in committee on the report and passed to third reading the following bills: Providing mining inspectors in each county having mines; prohibiting employment of persons under 16 years of age in mines; reducing the day's work to eight hours; prohibiting the carrying of concealed weapons; prohibiting the employment of Miners men or like persons as deputy sheriffs. All after the enacting clause was struck from the bill increasing the salaries of supreme court judges to $7,000.

Secured Railway Competition.

EVANSTON, Ill., March 17.—An action session Wednesday evening, the council by a vote of eight to three granted the Evansville & Carmi railway the right of way to lay their tracks on Fifth avenue and in the heart of the city on Second and Third streets, where it will build a double track road, when completed, will make direct connections with roads at Carmi, St. Francisville, & Vincennes, which have heretofore been shut out of this city by the Evansville & Terre Haute, which road has had no opposition into this city.

Hung on by the Window Sills.

ALBANY, N. Y., March 17.—A fire broke out Wednesday morning in the upper part of 325 Broadway, owned by Henry R. Wright, commission merchant. The lower floors and store were occupied by the owner. The fire started in William Hales' pattern shop, upstairs, and soon spread to the adjoining rooms, used for the storage of liquor and food. Fred Hales and a man named McDonald, of Troy, escaped by the windows, both hanging by the stone sills for fully fifteen minutes, until the ladders were procured.

Mortgaged Books He Borrowed.

WELSH, a state secretary, and defeated candidate for the recent legislature, has involved himself in much trouble by mortgaging several hundred dollars' worth of Indian reports to him temporarily by ex-Auditor of State Rice. He also sold several volumes to a second-hand bookseller. It is said that some of his friends will make good loss. In making the mortgage he swore that the property was his own and free from all claims, etc.

Fell Through a Trestle.

MARSHFIELD, Wis., March 17.—An engine and tender car on an incoming train on the Marquette, Columbus & Northern railway fell through a trestle near Vincent Station, twelve miles from this city, at 9 a. m. The engineer, Lyle Vincent, and the brakeman, E. L. Boddy, were killed. John McCoy and William Stewart, conductor and brakeman, were badly injured. Michael Barry, a passenger, had his left leg smashed.
